Dear [REDACTED]

Your address to the National Strategy Seminar was received with the greatest appreciation by the student body as well as by the undersigned and the entire directing personnel of the Seminar. The opportunity of meeting you was one that I greatly appreciated and I hope that in the future it will be my good fortune to be in touch with you on many occasions.

With many thanks and the thanks of the Sponsors and the Course Directors, I am

Sincerely yours,

Donald Armstrong
Brig. General USA Ret.
Seminar Commandant
